Brief Filed by Attorneys for Rockefelier and Others Scathingly Denounce Mine Workers.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Washington, June 13.—Showing a determination to fight out the Colorado strike to the last ditch, a brief, which scathingly denounces the United Mine Workers of America and other organizations, was filed with Chairman Foster, of the House Committee on Mines, to-day by attorneys for the Rockefeller and other interests in Colorado.
The brief states:

"Instead of a strike, this controversy is an armed insurrection against the sovereign authority of Colorado, conceived, planned, managed, financed and directed by the offlicers and leaders of the United Mine Workers, inangurated more than ten years ago, and purued with a persistence and villainy nost insidious and reprehensible tymed defense of the mines by the perators if the Federal troops are rithdrawn is indicated; if the State dill not furnish to the owners of the reporty the protection to which they re entitled, it is left to them to deind themselves and their property y whatever means they can find," says ic brief.
Centinuing the brief states:

"To-day with our idle armite."

by whatever means they can find, says the brief.

Continuing the brief states:

To-day with our idle armies marching through, the country, overriding the law and breaking the peace of communities, and agistors calling themselves hourse with charges of violated statutes, abusing every privilege guaranteed them in the freedom of press and speech, we certainly have a sufficient promouition of what is to come, and a sufficient admonition of timely action to prevent it.

Federal and State officers are criticized for lax enforcement of the existing laws for the protection of property.
